Proceedings: [In Chambers] Order to Show Cause re Dismissal for Lack of Prosecution

Absent a showing of good cause, an action must be dismissed without prejudice if the summons and complaint are not served on a defendant within 90 days (120 days prior to December 1, 2015) after the complaint is filed. Fed.R.Civ.Proc. 4(m). Generally, defendants must answer the complaint within 21 days after service (60 days if the defendant is the United States). Fed.R.Civ.Proc. 12(a)(1).

In the present case, it appears that one or more of these time periods has not been met. Accordingly, the court, on its own motion, orders plaintiff(s) to show cause in writing on or before June 1, 2016 why this action should not be dismissed for lack of prosecution. Pursuant to Rule 78 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the court finds that this matter is appropriate for submission without oral argument. The Order To Show Cause will stand submitted upon the filing of plaintiff's response.

If plaintiff/defendant files

- Proof of timely service of summons and complaint on the following defendant(s): Jonny Dahinten and Angela Babsanyan (last day to serve was March 10, 2016)

- AND -

- Plaintiff's application for entry of default pursuant to Rule 55a of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as to defendant(s): Bayview Financial; Small Business Funding, LLC; Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC; Asset Foreclosure Services, LLC; Executive Investments, LLC; Shirley Lucas; Iraida Schwartz and Michael Parrish (a deficiency notice was issued on March 28, 2016 listing the items that needed to be corrected in order for default to be entered.)

on or before the date indicated above, the court will consider this a satisfactory response to the Order To Show Cause.
